

Winter

In winter it is cold. People are snugly in bed all fast asleep. Outside icicles are cold and water is frozen. The snowflakes are falling from the sky.

The trees are covered with snow outside. The road is slippery. Animals are hibernating like the bat and the hedgehog.

By Jenny Hogan.

