

Snow!

On the 12th of December Willy woke up with excitement. “SNOW SNOW” he screamed while running down the stairs. He ran into kitchen. He looked out the window and said “no snow no snow”.

Willy woke his Mom and Dad up and told them that there was no snow. His Dad told Willy to get dressed and said “we will investigate”.

Willy and his Dad went to Granny’s house, up the field and down the village but still no sign of snow. It was getting dark so Dad told Willy that they had to go home.

The next day Willy heard a quite slushy sound from the roof. Willy whizzed to the window and shouted “SNOW SNOW!”
