

The White Winter

One cold day a boy named Max was playing with his toys. Max lived in a big house. He had one sister and her name was Paula and he had two brothers, Ron and Harry. Paula and Max liked to read while Ron and Harry liked to play with snow. Max and Paula went outside to tell Ron and Harry that it was lunch time. During lunch mum whispered to Max. Max whispered to Paula. Paula whispered to Harry. Harry whispered to Ron. We are going to Athlone. They packed the car full to the top and off they dashed. It took two hours to get to Athlone. Max, Paula, Ron and Harry got out of the car and it began to snow and that is the story of the white winter.
