

Winter

One day Tara and Hazel woke up. It was snowing so they went outside.

Hazel pulled Tara on the sledge. It got cold so Hazel and Tara went inside.

They put on their gloves hats coats and scarfs and they went back outside. When they went back outside they started to throw snowballs at each other.

They started to get bored. They looked around to play something. Then they saw a hedgehog curled up in a tree. Tara went to touch it but the hedgehog pricked her. Hazel had to bring Tara inside and put a plaster on her. Finally they sat down inside and had hot chocolate.
