

Late breakfast!!!

One morning Liam woke up to the sounds of his brother Jamie screaming “snow day”!

They yanked on their clothes and zoomed outside to play in the snow. They were the first ones out. They both built snowmen and walls. They were both hungry. They wanted breakfast badly. They raced home to get breakfast but there was no one there. They looked at the clock. It was 3 o’clock.

Suddenly Jamie remembered that the family was doing the Christmas shopping! The shopping is a whole other story.
