

Winter fun

One snowy morning Thomas and Clodagh woke up to a lovely white wonderland. They threw on their hats scarfs and gloves and coats and ran outside. They built snowmen and had a snowball fight. After their snowball fight they met up with their friends Evan Matthew Ava Aoife and Liya. They all decided to have a huge snowball fight. They gathered some of their friends and split up into teams. They decided to do boys against girls. They played for an hour. After that they were exuasted. They went inside and had some hot chocolate. The end by
