

The Haunted House

From where I stood in the woods it looked like a castle rising out of the mist at the top of the hill. We couldn't make out from this distance just how many windows we could see but there seemed to be a thousand. There was only one cure for our curiosity - we had to go and explore.

It was so scary there in the woods. I heard screaming so I ran as fast as I could to see what had happened. I got to the castle. I knocked on the door and a big echo went through the house. I heard a voice say "Come in!" so I opened the door and some one was sitting in a chair next to the fire. It was a skeleton drinking hot chocolate. He said "I was expecting a human to walk in sometime."

The door shut quickly and locked. I could not get out so I tried to break the window but it was bullet proof. The skeleton grabbed me and locked me in the dungeon and nobody ever came to find me.

By James Williams