

The Vampires

From where we stood in the woods, it looked like a castle rising out of the mist at the top of the hill. We couldn't make out from this distance just how many windows we could see but there seemed to be a thousand. There was only one cure for our curiosity..... We had to go in and explore.

Tom and I had been trick or treating until we saw some teenagers. We scared them by jumping out in front of them and they chased us into the woods. We got away from them but the mist started coming down from the sky. Tom and I were really scared so we kept walking until the mist started to disappear. All of a sudden the ground moved and a castle appeared out of the ground. We were curious to get a closer look at the castle. It was so mysterious because the castle seemed to have come out of nowhere.

Tom and I walked up to the castle to see if anyone lived there. As we got closer and closer we got more scared. We finally made it to the door and it creaked open. It was scary. Tom whispered to me saying "We should go in!" "Ok!" I whispered back. We knocked on the door and walked in.

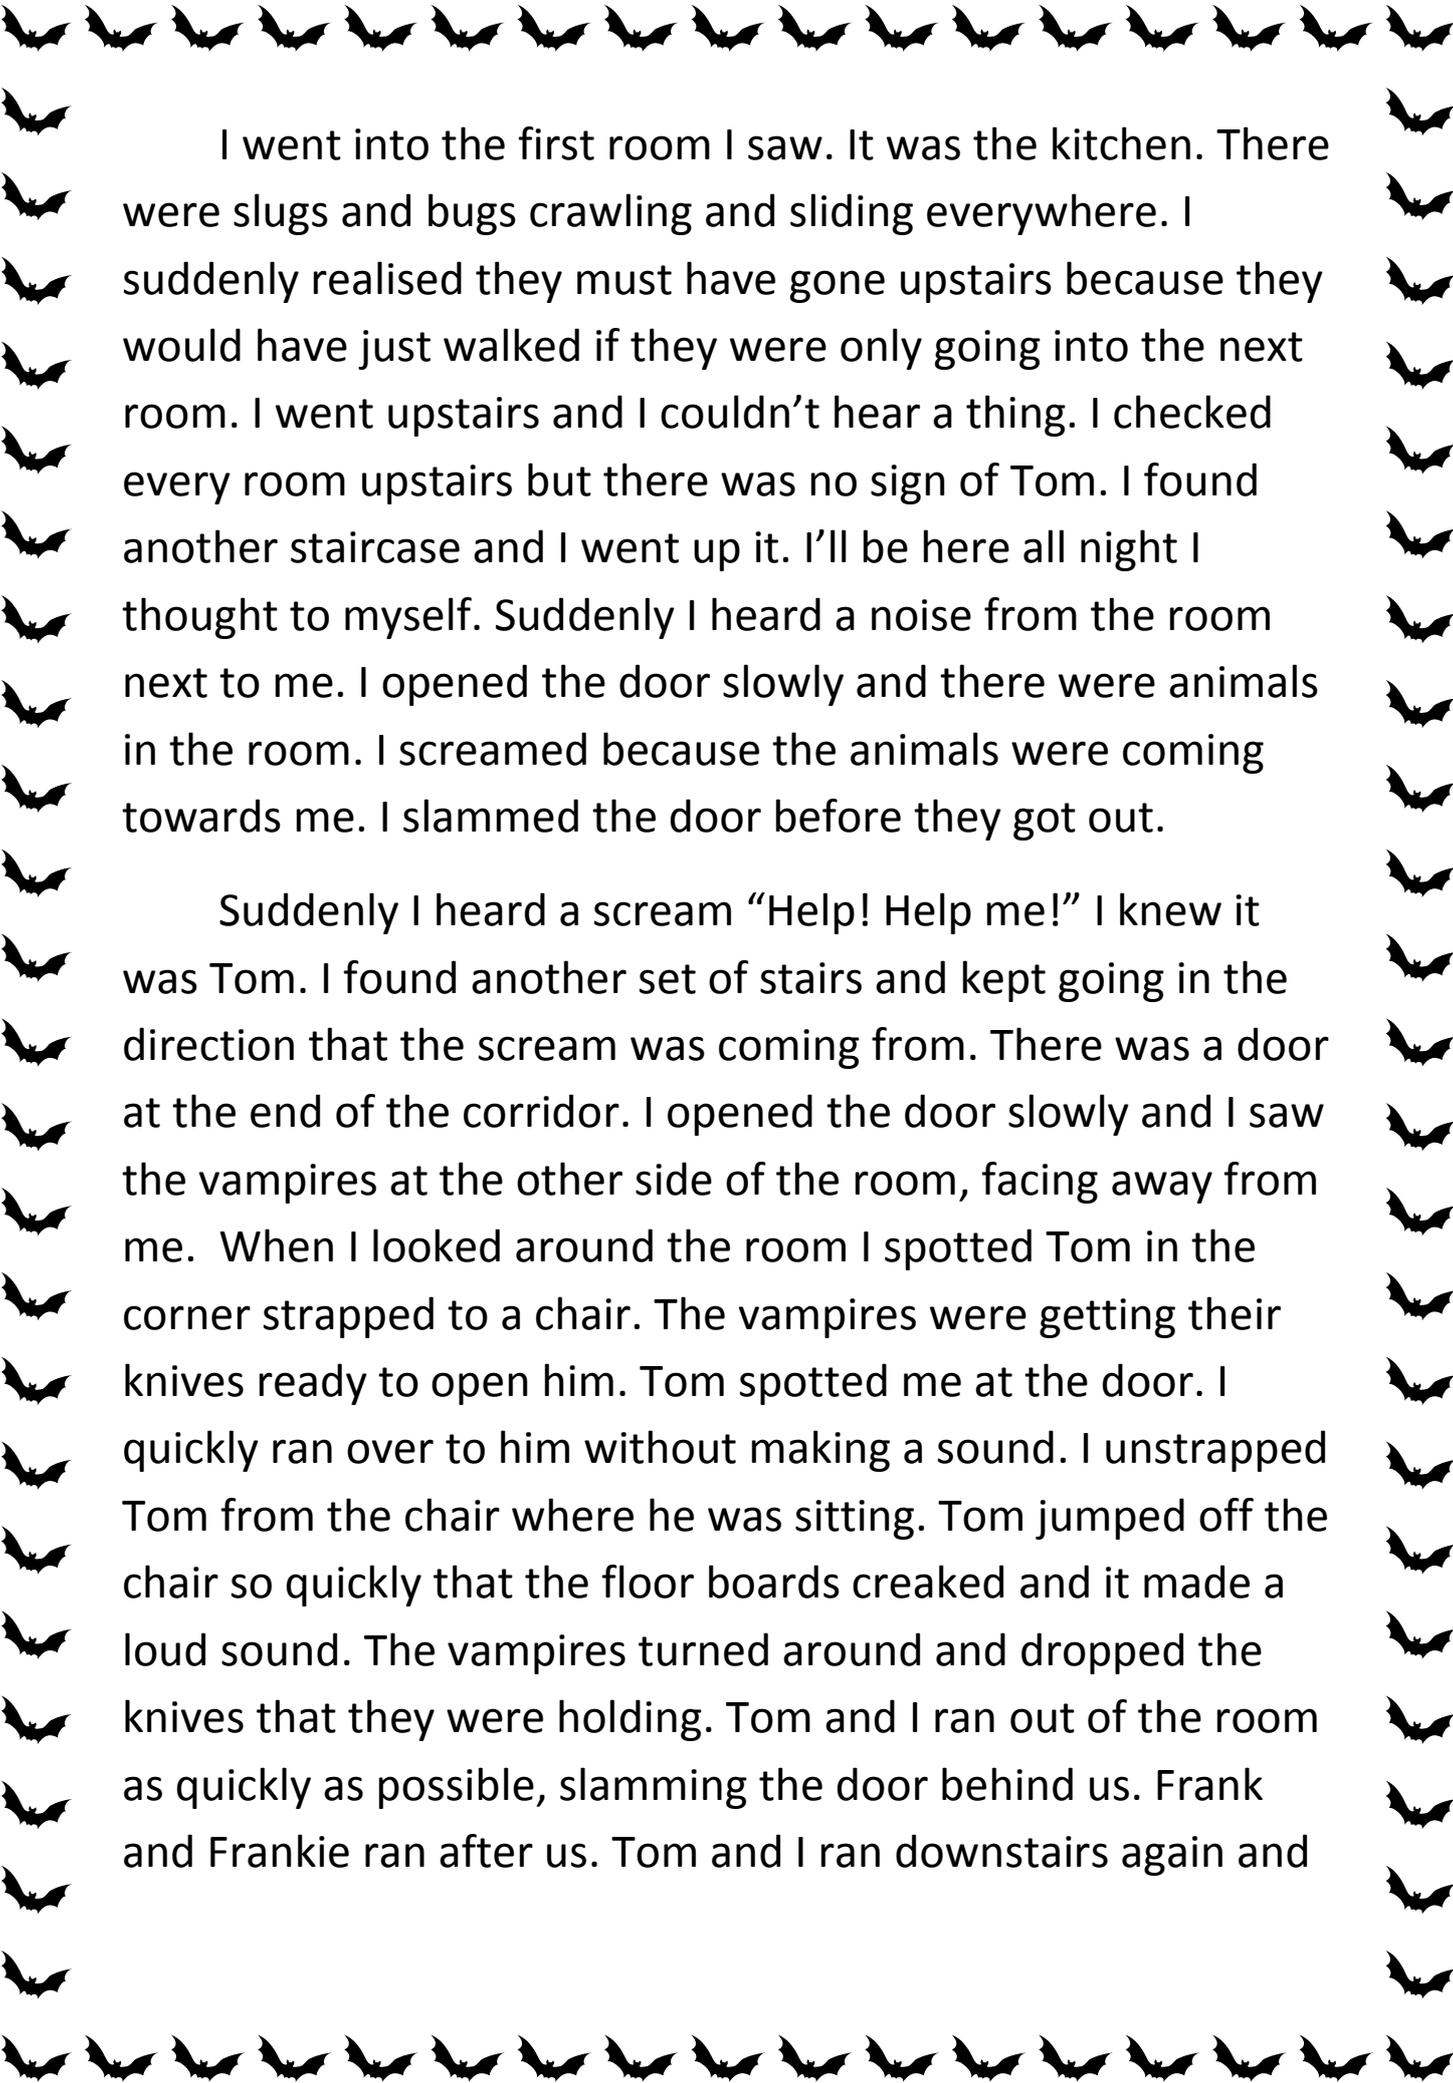

Suddenly bats came flying out. Tom and I screamed. We walked into the castle. We went through the door and we looked around. The castle was massive and it was clean as well so we were sure that someone lived here. Suddenly the door slammed closed behind us. There were two bats left and they were flying towards the door where Tom and I were standing. Tom and I were scared. Suddenly the bats transformed into vampires. Tom and I screamed so loud that the noise probably went to the moon. "Ahhhhh! Ahhhhh!

Help! Help!" screamed Tom and I. The bats had turned into a man and a woman. They started talking, saying "We have been expecting you. We have been waiting for two years for humans to come". "My name is Frank." whispered the male vampire. "My name is Frankie." whispered the female vampire. "We are going to suck your blood and eat your guts" laughed the vampires. Tom and I screamed and raced for the door. The door would not budge.

The vampires came closer and closer to Tom and I. Frank and Frankie smelt us and said that Tom was juicier than me. They took Tom with them as they disappeared. I was confused and scared because I was left on my own and I didn't know where Tom was. I made a decision that I would explore the castle to find Tom.

I went into the first room I saw. It was the kitchen. There were slugs and bugs crawling and sliding everywhere. I suddenly realised they must have gone upstairs because they would have just walked if they were only going into the next room. I went upstairs and I couldn't hear a thing. I checked every room upstairs but there was no sign of Tom. I found another staircase and I went up it. I'll be here all night I thought to myself. Suddenly I heard a noise from the room next to me. I opened the door slowly and there were animals in the room. I screamed because the animals were coming towards me. I slammed the door before they got out.

Suddenly I heard a scream "Help! Help me!" I knew it was Tom. I found another set of stairs and kept going in the direction that the scream was coming from. There was a door at the end of the corridor. I opened the door slowly and I saw the vampires at the other side of the room, facing away from me. When I looked around the room I spotted Tom in the corner strapped to a chair. The vampires were getting their knives ready to open him. Tom spotted me at the door. I quickly ran over to him without making a sound. I unstrapped Tom from the chair where he was sitting. Tom jumped off the chair so quickly that the floor boards creaked and it made a loud sound. The vampires turned around and dropped the knives that they were holding. Tom and I ran out of the room as quickly as possible, slamming the door behind us. Frank and Frankie ran after us. Tom and I ran downstairs again and again while slamming the doors behind us trying to slow them down.

While the vampires were chasing us they were shouting “Ye can’t run from vampires.” They whispered to each other saying “We can’t let them get through the front door, remember we can’t go through the door ourselves.” Tom and I found the front door but the door would not open. The vampires were getting closer and closer. Tom and I ran into the closest room to us. We shut the door and blocked it with a chair. The vampires were banging on the door. BANG.... Shards of glass went everywhere. Tom had smashed the window with a chair. It made the loudest noise ever. Tom shouted “Come on!” Tom jumped out the window and I followed. We ran as fast as we could. Finally we got back to the forest. Tom and I promised never to go back there again.

The next day I went to the spot where we had first seen the castle. The castle was gone. It was a mystery.
