

Stuck in the snow

One frosty Christmas Eve Lilly and Sam got a present from their mum and Dad. It was a sledge! "Can we try it out"? Lilly and Sam asked. "Ok but put on your coats first".

Lilly and Sam disappeared into the distance. Suddenly they did not notice that they were heading for a big hole. They could not stop! Sam and Lilly had no control of the sledge. BANG!!! The sledge went up in the air Sam and Lilly fell into hole.

. "HELP HELP" cried Lilly and Sam. "We will be here for Christmas" Sam said sadly. In the distance Mum and dad called for the children to come home for dinner time. Lilly and Sam screamed for help again. This time mum and dad heard them.

They rushed to the hole. They helped the two children out of the hole. That evening they put up the stockings and left out Carrots for the reindeers and chocolate cookies and milk for Santa.

The next day Sam and Lilly woke up there were loads of toys under the tree.
