

Swordfish

Swordfish are named after its long nose. Swordfish are found in oceans around the world. Swordfish can grow to over 4 metres and can weigh 45kg. Swordfish are blue and the sword is black. They mostly eat at night. Swordfish are one of the fastest swimmers. And they can jump out of the water. By Eoghan

