

Should children leave out milk for Santa?

I think children should leave out milk for Santa. Christmas Eve is an exciting time of year and children like to leave out milk and biscuits for Santa.

Children will be very happy when their presents are under the tree and the milk and biscuits are gone and the carrot for Rudolf.

Santa would be very hungry from flying all around the world. So children should leave out milk for him. It's a way to say thank you for your presents.

By Alisha Ho ho! Merry Christmas and make sure to leave out milk for Santa!
